Compensation Policy for Officers

("Compensation Policy" or the "Policy")

Updated as of December 19, 2016

1. Introduction

- 1.1 This document constitutes the Compensation Policy for Officers in the Company, as defined in clause 267a(a) of the Companies Law-1999 (hereinafter: the "Law" or the "Companies Law").
- 1.2 The Compensation Policy for Officers in the Company is set according to Amendment No. 20 (hereinafter: "Amendment 20") to the Companies Law, which determines obligations with respect to the adoption of a compensation policy for officers in Israeli public companies or private companies which issued bonds to the public.
- 1.3 The Compensation Policy is meant to provide the Company the ability to attract, retain, reward and motivate highly skilled Officers and to assure that the compensation structure meets the Company's interests and its overall financial and strategic objectives.
- 1.4 The Company determined the Compensation Policy for Officers in accordance with the following considerations:
 - 1.4.1 Promoting the Company's objectives, work schedule and policies from a viewpoint which aims to enhance both long term and short term value for all of SimiGon's stakeholders.

Every officer shall be entitled only to the compensation that was specifically determined and approved with regard to that officer by the authorized organs of the Company, subject to any applicable law.
- 1.6 The Compensation Policy is placed before the Board of Directors (hereinafter: the "Board") for its review and approval, following the recommendation of the Compensation Committee. The approval of the Compensation Policy by the Board is subject to the approval thereof at the General Meeting of the Company's shareholders in accordance with the Law.

- 5.4.4 Equity Based Compensation for Directors - In addition to the compensation set forth in Section 4.3, the Company may grant the directors (including external directors) an equity based compensation in order to align the directors' interests with the interests of shareholders and to promote creation of long term value for the Company. Such grant shall be approved by the General Meeting of the Company's shareholders following the recommendation of the Compensation Committee and the approval of the Board. In any case, the maximum value (on the date of issuance) for the option package which will be issued to a single director, in value terms on the date of issuance, based on one of the accepted methods of valuation, divided amongst the vesting period, shall not exceed One percent of SimiGon's Market Cap on the date of issuance.

5.5 Discretion of the Board

The Board, following the recommendations of the CEO and the Compensation Committee, shall reserve the right to reduce the variable compensation of any officer at its sole discretion, provided that such reduction is in accordance with the considerations which have been set forth in Section 1 above, and subject to any applicable law.

6 Internal Compensation Ratio

The Compensation Committee has taken and will take into consideration while determining the Officers' compensation, the fact that the Company's employees are employed in various countries worldwide, under different terms of employment. Therefore the Compensation Committee considered the relationship between the terms of service and employment of the Office holder and the salary of the other employees of the Company in each Office holder's geographic location, and in particular the ratio of the total compensation for the Officers of the Company to the average and median salary of the Company's employees in each geographic location. The Compensation Committee found that the relationship mentioned above does not harm the Company's performance and its ability to recruit and retain its employees in the various countries.
