Quality Teaching At It's BEST!

Penny Walter... Director Penny has over 38 years of experience with youth based performing arts groups such as Drill Team, Dance line, and Color guard. Her award winning groups have performed at the World Series and Super Bowl XXVII. Penny focuses her attention to the day to day operations of the studio, attending to the needs of the students and parents. With Center Stage entering its fifteenth year, she continues to be extremely proud of our friendly and nurturing family environment where children come first.. Welcome to Center Stage !

Lisa Broz Lisa has been dancing for the past 27 years and is entering into her 19th year of teaching. She has been trained in ballet, lyrical, jazz, tap, character, musical theatre, modern and Pointe at local studio's, the U of M, and national dance conventions. Aside from teaching at Center Stage, Lisa has judged for Co. Dance and Star Light Competition around the United States. She is also listed with Klymaxx Dance Agency as a freelance choreographer and professional dancer. Lisa is an award winning choreographer. She has a unique talent of balancing the art of teaching dancers of all ages, as well as our highly recognized competitive lines. Lisa and her husband Chris continue to enjoy life with their children Kinley and Sierra where they too, dance at Center Stage and their toddler son Finn.

Michelle Wanous Michelle has been dancing since the age of four and has taught for the past twenty-four years. She is an accomplished teacher in pre-school through Adult levels. Her specialties are Jazz, Tap, Lyrical and Competition dance. Michelle also was a previous high school math teacher and dance team coach at Bloomington Jefferson. She currently is continuing her education career teaching elementary education. Michelle and her husband Mark have three children sons, Samuel and Tyler and daughter Abby.

Bekki Burnette Bekki Burnette has been teaching classical ballet for 33 years. Beginning ballet lessons at the age of seven, Bekki joined The Bristol Ballet Company as a soloist at the age of 12 and achieved the status of principal dancer by age 16. Notable mentors included Robert Joffrey (The Joffrey Ballet), David Howard (New York City Ballet), and Robert Barnett (The Atlanta Ballet). Bekki is trained in Balanchine, Cecchetti, and Vaganova methods. Bekki was part of the original CSDS staff from 2001-2007. She retired for a few years to spend more time with her family. Bekki returned to CSDS in 2012 and is thrilled to be reunited with the CSDS family.

Julie Malinosky Julie has been dancing for the past 31 years. Julie is starting her 17th year on the staff at CSDS. She trained at local dance studios in Jazz, Tap, Ballet, Lyrical, Character, Kick line and POM, and was a performing line member for many years. During High School she was on the nationally ranked Eden Prairie POM squad and went on to dance at the U of M. Julie has performed at the Super bowl and appeared in both Nike and Fox Sports Net commercials. She graduated from the U of M with her license in Elementary Education. Julie and her husband Matt continue to enjoy life with their children Tony and Tara.

Kristen Lechner Kristen, is a recent graduate the University of Minnesota, she began dance at age 4 under the instruction of Michelle Wanous and Lisa Broz, and competition dance at age 5. While dancing in Center Stage Dance Studio's performing lines, Kristen has been named Center Stage's Jr. and Sr. Distinguished Dancer, Starlight Production's Distinguished Performer, LA Dance Magic Teen and Senior Magic Performer, and Hall of Fame's All Star Performer. Kristen was a teaching assistant since she was 14 and will be entering her 9th year teaching at the studio. Kristen has also been a teaching assistant for LA Dance Magic Conventions and a member of Breaking Boundaries Contemporary Dance Company.

Anica Hershey Anica has been dancing since the age of 3 and has been with Center Stage since it opened in 2001. During her dancing career she was named L.A. Dance Magic Senior Magic performer 2007 and 2009, a MN state fair talent semi-finalist, 1st runner up Miss StarPower and received the Just For Kix Heather Habeck award. After Graduating high school she taught for a year at a studio in Florida, then spent one year dancing with the Minnesota Timberwolves. Anica performed/competed with the all star group of Exisdanz, where along with her they took gold at World Finals. She is going into her 8th year teaching with Center Stage and absolutely loves working with all the kids!

Emily Powell Emily started dancing at the age of five and joined CSDS when it's doors opened in 2001. She then danced competitively for six years. She is a graduate of the University of Wisconsin-La Crosse with a degree in Elementary/Middle School Education with a minor in math. Emily is finishing her third year of teaching 7th/8th grade math. She is very excited to continue her combined passion for dance and teaching children at Center Stage.

Heather Krause With over 29 years of dance and cheer experience, Heather continues to be an active member in the dance community. Following her intensive 15 years of studio training, Heather continued her passion for dance as a member and choreographer for the Concordia University, NE dance team where she eventually returned as their dance team coach. Heather became a Minnesota Viking Cheerleader, with such honors as being named NFL's Cheerleader of the Week, a two time calendar model, choreographer and was selected to travel with the MVC to Mexico to be an instructor and judge for UPA Americup, Mexico. After retiring from the MVC she continue to perform and sat on the MN Vikings Cheerleader Executive Board. She is also an active judge for many regional dance competitions and continues to work in the modeling industry part time as well as teach piano.

Miranda Kunzer Miranda officially joined the Center Stage Teaching Staff in 2016. Graduating from St. Paul Conservatory, Miranda comes to us with a complete knowledge and understanding of all forms of dance. Being a former Center Stage competitive dancer Miranda has won outstanding awards at every competition that she has attended. Miranda has been trained by our own CSDS staff and we are excited to have her join us for her third year teaching at Center Stage and we look forward to many more years to come.

Jennifer Dressel Jennifer is the office manager, responsible for student registration, student accounts, staff administrative support and will take care of any questions or concerns you might have. She continues to devote her time to the day to day operations supporting the staff at Center Stage. When not at the studio Jennifer enjoys spending time with her husband Brian and their puppy "Maggie".

Tina O'Connell Tina helps out in the office and does the majority of rhinestoning on our performing line costumes. Tina's full time job is teaching middle school. Her daughters Anna and Julia are competitive dancers; as a result, Tina finds herself immersed in all things competition dance. When not devoted to the dance world, Tina along, with her husband Matt enjoy watching their son Joey play football and baseball.

Performing Lines

Center Stage Dance is proud to provide the opportunity for dancers to dance at a competitive level. While participating in our competition program our instructors continue to give each dancer a solid dance education while enhancing each dancers level of performance technique and showmanship. Our competition staff prides itself on maintaining a positive learning environment while teaching students the disciplines of competition.

- Competition dance requires a higher level of commitment from dancers, parents and staff. Dancers are required to take additional ballet technique, jazz/tap technique, and production classes along with their team class.
- Competition team members will incur additional costs. These include costumes, makeup, competition fees and shoe expenses. We work hard to keep these costs as low as possible.
- Performing Lines compete at four nationally rank competitions which are held locally.
- Performing lines go to nationals every other year.
- Placement on a team is by audition only.
- All dancers who wish to audition must attend our summer audition intensives(s).

If you have any questions regarding our competition program, please call the Studio @ 952-895-3484.

SPRING RECITAL

Our fully staged professional recital will be held in the month of June. This is the final celebration of the hard work that dancers, parents, instructors and staff together have achieved. All dancers in classes age five and up will perform in our recital. Details will follow regarding dress rehearsals and recital dates. We can not guarantee that dancers in multiple classes or dancers with siblings that dance will have all their dances in the same recital.

PICTURES

Studio Pictures are taken in May for all classes at the studio by a professional photographer. Parents are under no obligations to purchase pictures. However, we do ask that you allow your son/daughter to participate in the class group pictures. Our specific picture date will be determined at a later time.
