

...And Dance! Studio Dress Code

Proper dress code allows instructors to view proper body alignment and muscle use. It helps to promote safety and discipline in our classrooms. Dancers who do not dress appropriately in class will be issued a verbal warning. If more than one incident occurs, dancer will be invited to observe the class. (Company Dancers will not receive ballet credits if asked to sit out in ballet class for dress code violations)

Dance shoes should not be worn outside the studio at any time. Cover ups should be worn when leaving the studio

For the safety of our dancers, we ask that no jewelry be worn.

5 steps to an Easy sock bun:

1. Cut the toe off of a sock. One in a color that is close to your hair works best.
2. Roll the sock starting at the top until you've formed a donut shape.
3. Put your hair into a ponytail.
4. Take the donut sock and place it over the end of your pony tail.
5. Start rolling the sock down and your hair around it until you reach the base of your pony tail.
