NOTIFICATION: It is crucial to your recovery that you follow through and your prescribed therapy treatment. If for any reason you can not keep your scheduled appointment, please be sure to contact the front desk to reschedule your missed appointment. If you miss 3 or more visits without justification from your doctor or physician you will lose your scheduled timeslot. Upon expiration of your current prescription, we may request for a continuation of your therapy after re-evaluating you and discussing your existing condition. One you began to feel better you may have the tendency to want to stop or cut back on your physical therapy given that your immediate pain is gone, remember your symptoms can return if you do not properly assess your condition. If you have any questions or concerns with reference to your therapy treatment, make sure to contact your therapist or physical therapy assistant to assess the situation.
