

Texas Package Stores Association Associate Membership Application

All suppliers and service companies that do business with Texas package stores are invited to join the Texas Package Stores Association as an Associate Member.

Benefits of Associate Membership to the Industry – As an Associate Member of the TPSA, you will be publicly demonstrating your support for the Texas package store industry. Your name (or company name) will be included in a listing of Associate Members in the Texas Beverage Journal. Your support as a TPSA Associate Member helps to insure that the alcohol beverage industry has strong and effective representation in Austin and Washington D.C.

Benefits of Associate Membership to You – With your Associate Membership you will receive the following:

- Regular, high visibility recognition of your company among Texas package store owners
- Placement on a special TPSA mailing list to receive legislative alerts and other important industry notices
- Special discounts on registration fees at the annual TPSA Convention

Help foster a better working relationship between suppliers and Texas package store owners –
Become an Associate Member today!

Because a significant portion of TPSA dues are used to lobby the legislature on important issues important to package stores, TPSA dues are generally not deductible under the Internal Revenue Code. Consult your tax advisor for complete information.
