

Final Sail: Hs Lordships Restaurant and Events to close in Berkeley

Anaheim, Calif. – June 25th, 2018 – Hs Lordships announced in May of this year its closure after 50 years of proudly serving Berkeley and the Bay Area. Hs Lordships is now in its final week of service, closing after the Sunday Brunch service on Sunday, July 1st.

John Tallichet, CEO of Specialty Restaurants, operator of Hs Lordships shared his thoughts, “As we have for 50 years, we are committed to our obligation to service our guests as we have in the past. We are equally committed to our obligation to our team members and complying with our contractual obligation with Unite-Here.”

Mr. Tallichet went on to say “It has been our honor and privilege to be part of this community, serving our various constituencies to the best of our abilities.” The restaurant will continue, as it has through the notice of closure and past weekend, to operate normal business hours through brunch on July 1st.

About Specialty Restaurants Corporation (SRC)

SRC, a leader in the hospitality industry, was founded in 1958 by World War II veteran and Bomber Pilot, David Tallichet. As a family-owned corporation, SRC prides itself on providing their guests with beautifully appointed restaurants and event centers featuring breathtaking panoramic views of city skylines, waterfronts and airports. SRC holds an impressive portfolio of 20+ award-winning restaurants throughout the United States and we pride ourselves on creating incomparable memories by delivering an unforgettable dining experience with exceptional food, unmatched service and breathtaking views.

Contact:

Margaret Schroeder

mschroeder@srcmail.com

Elena Zamanpour

ezamanpour@srcmail.com

###