Elijah Adam has made his way among the very best in the Midwest for performing, singing, and song writing. He made his mark early in his career by demystifying the public's opinion of quality music and entertainment through performing and teaching while leaving a legacy for others to follow. In addition to displaying his pyrotechnic guitar work, He has become one of the Midwest's most spirited entertainers the Region has to offer.

Erin Lee has dazzled crowds alike by her sweet Midwest charm and her God gifted talent to sing her heart out. She has earned her mark as one of the finest singing entertainers and has quickly become a name to remember. There is a certain nostalgia and grace when Erin Lee sings and she has proven it countless times to many audiences. She has become one of the Midwest's most spirited entertainers the Region has to offer.

Regardless of whether performing Solo, Duo, or "The E & E Band" which can range from a 4 to an 8 piece group with a blistering horn section, it is a sure bet the audience will leave the show feeling fully satisfied and wanting more. They remind people that there is still new quality talent ready to take music to whole new audiences and new generations alike. Excellent music is timeless and has no shelf life if it is done correctly and any music despite the genre can be deemed quality entertainment if such standards are met the way Erin Lee & Elijah Adam Band continues to do time after time.
